

In the ever changing world that we are a part of, people want to know that they matter and they are being cared for.

For employees, it's about knowing that leadership is thinking about their wellbeing, resilience, mindset and productivity. For organisations to thrive, we need to design people change strategies that help build inclusive cultures and communities.

We would love to help you through this journey.

Frequently asked questions

Q- Can I pick and choose between programmes?

Of course you can. We are proud of building programmes that address the exact challenges of our clients and are happy to tailor each programme.

Q- How much does it cost?

We like to be open and transparent about our pricing. Prices vary depending on the type of programme we are working on. For instance- a Consultancy based project is priced differently to a half a day training session. Prices for our training programmes start from £500 and go upto £2000 (approx). Consultancy based projects are priced on individual needs and the duration of the project.

Q- Do you give any discounts to charities, schools and Universities?

We are a business for good and always offer a 10% discount to charities, schools and Universities. We can also offer a discount on longer running training programmes.

Q- Where do you deliver?

We can deliver online, face to face and within a hybrid set up as well.

Q- This all sounds great, how do I get started?

Please contact us and we will set up a consultation to learn about your team's needs and make sure we are the right fit for you.
